The Week In Society.

Society has had its usual quota of small affairs the past week, with two dances to add zest to the diversions, and while there are no large affairs on the calendar for the coming week, several small ones are scheduled. Paducah folk who have been at the summer resort for the past few weeks are beginning the home-coming, and soon the boys and girls, who are going off to school will be taking their departure. Already there are some big parties planned for the Fall season. The German club will resume its dances at the Palmer house, and the Elks will give some more of their pleasant dances.
